Lothians Champion of Champions Final

2017- Mens Champion of Champions - Graham Davidson (Winterfield)

The Lothians Champion of Champions Final was between Craig Davidson (Craigielaw) and Graham Davidson (Winterfield)

The final was played over Longniddry in what can only be described as perfect conditions sunny, warm with little or no wind.

Both players parred the first 3 holes with Craig birding the 4th to go one up. It stayed that way until the 7th which Graham birded to level the match. Craig won the 8th but Graham bounced back to win the 9th to square the match through the turn. Graham birded 11&12 to go 2up and then birdied the 13th to go 3up, both player parred 15&16 to secure a 3&2 victory for Graham Davidson (Winterfield) at the 16th.

Graham now has 3 wins in this event having previously held the title in 2008 and 2014. Only Keith Nicholson (Haddington & Gullane), with 5 wins, has a better record
